Stacey will be missed by our family.

Stacey had become part of our family for about the five years. We grew to love her as one of our own.

stacey loved simple little things. I would take different crafts to the nursing home so she could feel useful. I know Stacey has gone ahead of us to be with Jesus and she is now dancing with the Angels of heaven. We love you Stacey and you will forever remain in our hearts. Brett your mom wanted to get better and take care of you more than anything else in this world. I hope you can find comfort in knowing this.
