

Chad Eric Edwards

November 1, 1972 - June 11, 2015

Chad Eric Edwards, born November 1, 1972 in Valparaiso, passed away Thursday, June 11, 2015 in his sleep at his home in Portage. Chad graduated from Las Vegas High School in 1991 and formerly attended Lake Station High School. He was a resident of Las Vegas for over 22 years and formerly of Lake Station. Chad was a very funny man. He loved his daughter, Taylor, dog, Toby and his family more than anything. He loved music, sports, wearing his hats and his Jordan apparel collection. He loved to be around his family and just laugh and reminisce. His favorite quote/song lyric to listen to with his Uncle Mike was "why do we dream, when our thoughts mean nothing" – Godsmack. Chad loved to tag you last as we walked out the door, but Chad you touched our hearts last. I love you.

Chad was preceded in death by his grandparents, Opal and Wilfred Lara, Laverne Edwards, sister, Carrie Lynn Edwards, step-mother, Christine Edwards, cousin, Victoria Lynn Bianco and Toby Edwards, his faithful dog.

He is survived by his daughter, Taylor Edwards, mother, Jeanette (nee Lara) Mendez; father Charles Edwards Sr., brother, Charles Edwards, Jr.; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Friends are invited to visit with Chad's family on Monday, June 15, 2015 from 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home, 701 E. 7th Street, Hobart, IN. A Memorial Service will be held on Monday, June 15, 2015 at 6:00 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home. Cremation at the Burns Funeral Home Crematory will precede the memorial service.

Mackenzie Urn